1 EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The travel and tourism sector in the Philippines recorded significant growth during the review period. Tourism flourished, with a significant increase in domestic and international tourist volumes, primarily due to the Department of Tourism's (DOT) continuous efforts to promote the Philippines as a key tourist destination in the Asia-Pacific region. Prioritization of the sector also led to an increase in investment on tourism infrastructure and the government is aiming to improve transportation infrastructure in the country during the forecast period.

- During the review period, domestic tourist volume increased at a CAGR of XX.XX%, from XX.XX million trips in 2008 to XX.XX million trips in 2012. This growth is expected to continue over the forecast period with domestic tourist volume reaching XX.XX million by 2017, driven by strong economic growth, infrastructure development, increasing flight frequencies and government initiatives to promote tourism.
- Inbound tourist volumes rose from XX.XX million in 2008 to XX.XX million in 2012, at a review-period CAGR of XX.XX%. Government initiatives such as infrastructure development and tourism promotion are expected to drive continued growth over the forecast period with a CAGR of XX.XX%.
- Outbound tourist volume is expected to increase at a forecast-period CAGR of XX.XX%, increasing from XX.XX million outbound departures in 2012 to XX.XX million by 2017.
- Air capacity increased at a CAGR of XX.XX% during the review period, led by growth in the low-cost carrier capacity which increased at a CAGR of XX.XX% during the same period.
- In line with the steady rise in tourist volumes over the forecast period, the Philippine hotel market's total revenue is expected to increase at a CAGR of XX.XX% to reach PHPXX.XX billion (US$XX.XX billion) in 2017.

2 APPENDIX

2.1 What is this Report About?

This report is the result of extensive research into the travel and tourism sector in the Philippines, covering its dynamics and competitive landscape. It provides insights into the market size and forecast for the travel and tourism sector, and includes analysis and insight on key tourism-related subjects such as airports, popular destinations, and national tourist boards. It also includes an overview of the leading companies in the travel and tourism sector, and details of strategic initiatives undertaken by them.

2.2 Definitions

For the purposes of this report, the following timeframes apply:

- Review period: 2008–2012
- Forecast period: 2013–2017
- Base year for forecasting: 2012

All data is collected in local currency. To avoid distortions due to currency fluctuations, all conversions into US dollars, of current, historical and forecast data alike, are made with a yearly average exchange rate. All values in tables, with the exception of compound annual growth rates (CAGRs) are displayed to one decimal place. Growth rates may, therefore, appear inconsistent with absolute values due to this rounding method.

The key market categories featured in the report are defined below:

Term	Definition
Tourism demand factors	Factors that influence time and money spent on tourism. Typical factors include the amount of holiday leave available to the average employee in the country, and mean household income.
Annual employee holiday entitlement	The number of days the average resident of a country will accrue annually through entitled holidays, including annual leave and public holidays. Public holidays are statutory holidays to which a country's residents are entitled.
Domestic trip	A trip taken to a destination within the traveler's country of residence.
International trip	A trip taken to a destination outside the traveler's country of residence.
Trips taken by season	The number of trips undertaken by the residents of a country (both domestic and international), segmented into four quarters: January–March, April–June, July–September and October–December.
Number of trips by residents	The number of trips undertaken by the residents of a country, segmented by domestic and international trips.
Average length of trip	The average number of nights spent by the residents of a country, segmented by domestic and international trips.
Tourism flow factors	Factors that influence the flow of tourists from one location to another.
Number of overnight stays	The total number of nights spent by the residents of a country on all trips during a given year.
International arrivals	The number of foreign nationals entering a country. For example, a person from Canada who visits France would be an international arrival to France.

Leisure trips	Trips for holidaying, recreation, or visits to friends and relatives.
Business trips	Trips involving business as the primary purpose. This includes trips for meetings, incentives, conventions and exhibitions (MICE) purposes, events and conferences.
Other trips	Trips for purposes other than leisure or business, such as education, sports or pilgrimage.
International departures	The total number of citizens leaving their home country and arriving in other countries. This will be higher than the total number of citizens leaving their home country, as a traveler might travel to more than one country.
Domestic tourist expenditure	Expenditure on tourism commodities during trips within national borders by citizens of a country. This spending is categorized into accommodation, sightseeing and entertainment, food service, retail transportation, travel intermediation, and others, which include travel insurance and equipment rental.

Average expenditure per international tourist on transportation	The average expenditure on transportation by an international tourist within a country.
Average expenditure per domestic trip on transportation	The average expenditure by residents of a country on transportation during domestic trips.
Passenger airlines	An airline whose primary business is the transport of passengers.
Low-cost airlines	Airlines that generally offer lower fares by eliminating many traditional services. To recover the revenue lost in reduced ticket prices, the airlines may charge for additional facilities such as priority boarding, seat allocation, food and baggage.
Full-service airlines	Full-service airlines generally have higher fares, operate long-distance routes and offer a complete range of in-flight services.

Charter airlines	An airline hired by a group or single customer for leisure or business purposes, or as an air ambulance, and flies outside normal schedules. Airlines classified as non-scheduled by civil aviation organizations fall into this category.
Number of seats available	The number of seats available for purchase on all the airlines operating in a country, for example, both national and foreign carriers operating on domestic and international routes.
Number of seats sold	The number of seats sold to revenue passengers by all the airlines operating in a country in a year.
Hotels	Establishments that provide paid lodging and full guest services, typically with a continuous staff presence. In the case of motels, this includes off-street parking facilities but not necessarily meal services.
Budget hotels	Includes hotels that are considered to be budget accommodation, or have a one- or two-star rating, providing accommodation on a short-term basis at relatively low prices.
Midscale hotels	Includes hotels with a three-star rating. These hotels provide more facilities and comfort than budget hotels, and their services are charged at higher prices.
Upscale hotels	Includes hotels with a four star rating. Upscale hotels include both traditional full-service hotels and smaller select-service hotels with comfortable accommodation at higher prices than midscale hotels.
Luxury hotels	Includes hotels with a five-star rating or higher. Luxury hotels provide top quality accommodation, with a combination of high-class facilities and style, typically at much higher prices than standard hotels.
Number of rooms	The total number of rooms available in all hotel accommodation establishments in a country in a year.
Room occupancy rate	The percentage of available rooms sold during a given period.
Revenue per available room	A measure of financial performance in the hospitality industry. It is the ratio of total room revenue to total rooms available. Average room rates and occupancy can also be used to calculate revenue per available room.
Total room revenue	The room rent that a guest pays for the occupied room.
Total non-room revenue	Revenue earned by hotels other than the room rent. It includes revenue from food and beverages, telecommunications, health and leisure operations, and car rentals.
Number of guests	Guest numbers in all hotel accommodation establishments in a country in a year.
Business guests	The annual number of guests arriving in hotel accommodation establishments for business purposes.
Leisure guests	The annual number of guests arriving in hotel accommodation establishments for leisure purposes.
Car rental	Car rental is the hiring of a motor vehicle from one party to another.
Business rentals	Annual revenue generated through car rentals under negotiated contractual agreements between businesses and a rental company,
Leisure rentals	Annual revenue generated through car rentals directly to customers.
Airport rentals by leisure customers	Annual car rental revenue generated through direct customer rentals to and from an airport.
Airport rentals by business customers	Revenue generated through car rentals by business customers from an airport under negotiated contractual agreements between the employers and the rental company.
Non-airport rentals	Annual car rental revenue generated through direct customer rentals at locations other than airports.
Non-airport rentals by business customers	Revenue generated through car rentals by business customers at locations other than airports under negotiated contractual agreements between the employers and the rental company.

Insurance replacement	The revenue generated by car rental firms through customers hiring vehicles through insurance and leasing companies, repair shops or dealerships with which car rental companies have a contractual relationship.
Fleet size	The number of times rental cars are hired out.
Number of rental occasions	The number of times rental cars are rented out.
Rental days	The total number of days all cars in the fleet are rented. It is calculated by multiplying the total fleet size by the average number of days per year during which a car is rented.
Average rental length	The average duration of a car rental.
Utilization rate	The ratio of the number of rental days to total number of days for which cars could be actually rented during the year.
Average revenue per day	The ratio of car rental revenue to the total number of rental days in a year.
Travel intermediaries	Part of a business that assists in selling travel products and services to customers. The products may include airline tickets, car rentals, hotels, railway tickets and package holidays that may combine several products.
Accommodation only	Total revenue generated by intermediaries exclusively through accommodation bookings.
Travel only	Total revenue generated by intermediaries exclusively through travel bookings.
Car rental only	Total revenue generated by intermediaries exclusively through car rental bookings.
Tourism packages	A combination of tourism products or services, such as accommodation, travel bookings and car rental bundled together by a tour operator.
Experiential travel	Travel packages offering a holistic experience for travellers who want to go beyond the beaten tourist paths and learn about cultural and social aspects of a country or a place.
Other products	Revenue generated by travel intermediaries from travel products and services that are not classified above.
Travel agents	Businesses that sell travel-related products and services to both leisure and business customers on behalf of suppliers such as tour operators. These may include package holidays, sightseeing tours, airline tickets, hotel accommodation, cruise bookings, car rentals, rail travel and travel insurance. Some travel agents also serve as sales agents for international travel companies.
Tour operators	Tour operators typically combine two or more travel services, such as transport, sightseeing, accommodation, food and entertainment, and sell them either directly to customers or through travel agents as a single product, called a package tour, for a single price.
Other providers	Any part of the value chain between the direct supplier and traveler (customer), which is not classified as a travel agent or a tour operator.
Online	Revenue generated by travel intermediaries by selling travel-related products or services over the internet.
In-store	Revenue generated by travel intermediaries by selling related products or services to a customer over the counter.

2.3 Methodology

Timetric's dedicated research and analysis teams consist of experienced professionals with industry backgrounds in marketing, market research, consulting and advanced statistical expertise.

Timetric adheres to the Codes of Practice of the Market Research Society (www.mrs.org.uk) and the Society of Competitive Intelligence Professionals (www.scip.org).

All Timetric databases are continuously updated and revised.

All travel and tourism reports are created by following a comprehensive, four-stage methodology. This includes market study, research, analysis and quality control.

1) Market Study

A. Standardization

Definitions are specified using recognized industry classifications. The same definition is used for every country. Annual average currency exchange rates are used for the latest completed year. These are then applied across both the historical and forecast data to remove exchange rate fluctuations.

B. Internal Audit

Review of in-house databases to gather existing data:

- Historic market databases and reports
- Company database

C. Trend monitoring

- Review of the latest travel and tourism companies and industry trends

2) Research

A. Sources

- Collection of the latest market-specific data from a wide variety of industry sources:
 - Government statistics
 - Industry associations
 - Company filings
 - International organizations
 - Travel and tourism agencies

B. Expert opinion

- Collation of opinion taken from leading travel and tourism industry experts
- Analysis of third-party opinion and forecasts:
 - Broker reports
 - Media
 - Official government sources

C. Data consolidation and verification

- Consolidation of data and opinion to create historical datasets
- Creation of models to benchmark data across categories and geographies

3) Analysis

A. Market forecasts

- Feeding forecast data into market models:
 - Macroeconomic indicators
 - Industry-specific drivers
- Analysis of travel and tourism industry database to identify trends:
 - Latest travel and tourism trends
 - Key drivers of the travel and tourism industry

B. Report writing

- Analysis of market data
- Discussion of company and industry trends and issues
- Review of financial deals and travel and tourism trends

4) Quality Control

A. Templates

- Detailed process manuals
- Standardized report templates and accompanying style guides
- Complex forecasting tools to ensure that forecast methodologies are applied consistently
- Quality-control checklists

B. Quality control process

- Peer review
- Senior-level QC
- Random spot checks on data integrity
- Benchmark checks across databases
- Market data cross-checked for consistency with accumulated data from:
 - Company filings
 - Government sources
